

Fundamentals of Church Music – 11-21-23

Sorry I cannot be with you in class today. I have videoed the two lectures for today for you to watch. I have asked Mrs. Melissa to print out the lecture notes and the slides for you. I'm not sure you will be able to see much of the information on the screen in the recording, so I think having the slides printed may help you follow along.

Lesson 26 is the third and final look at various hymn and song writers. I apologize in advance for stumbling over some of the tunes and words. I have one song ("God Give Us Christian Homes") to be printed and included that I doubt y'all know but I want to introduce to you.

Lesson 27 is on copyright basics. I expect you to have questions on this one. I also did misstate something about halfway through about copying music for congregational use. I caught the mistake as I went on. Basically, copying music for congregational use is covered by a CCLI license, not the fair use or religious exemptions.

Looking ahead, we only have one more week before finals. We will have one more lecture and then review for the final.

DON'T FORGET THE TWO PAPERS AND THE READING ASSIGNMENT!!!

If you have any questions about the material, feel free to text me at 940-210-0927 or email me at matthew@baptistbasics.org or baptistbasics@gmail.com. I will try to respond in a timely manner if I am able.
